FAMILY FIESTA

On his birthday, the benevolent Dr Ishari Ganesh, known for his unwavering commitment to the well-being of his staff, decided to celebrate in a uniquely altruistic manner. Instead of indulging in lavish festivities for himself, he chose to express his gratitude to the hardworking faculty and staff who contribute tirelessly to the institution's success.

With a heart brimming with generosity, he organized a sumptuous feast, filled with an array of delectable dishes and treats, as a token of appreciation. As the aroma of freshly cooked meals wafted through the corridors, the college staff gathered in jubilation, touched by their employer's thoughtfulness. This act of kindness not only nourished their bodies but also warmed their spirits, fostering a sense of camaraderie and gratitude within the college community.
